By Mr. THORNBERRY:

H.R. 3840.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution. "The Congress shall have Power . . . To declare War . . ." and "To make Rules for the Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces."

This bill would establish an independent organization within the Department of Defense to develop and coordinate net assessments of the military capabilities of the United States compared to potential adversaries in order to identify emerging threats or opportunities. Congressional authority to establish such an office falls within two clauses of Article I, Section 8 of the Constitution, which give Congress the specific power "To make Rules for the Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces," and, more generally, "To declare War." The organization that would be established by this bill is a function of the "Government and Regulation of the land and naval Forces" and Congressional power to declare war.

By Mr. MILLER of Florida:

H.J. Res. 105.

Congress has the power to enact this legislation pursuant to the following:

Article I, Section 8.
